Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

All statements herein other than statements of historical fact are "forward-looking statements" for purposes of the United States securities laws. These statements reflect management's current views with respect to future events, financial performance and other aspects of our business. Statements that include the words "may," "estimate," "continue," "expect," "plan," "goal," "intend," "believe," "project," "anticipate" and similar statements of a forward-looking nature identify forward-looking statements.

All forward-looking statements address matters that involve risks and uncertainties. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in these statements. These factors may include the following:

- (a)Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd.'s or the Group's level of indebtedness and any resultant restrictions on financial flexibility;
- (b)The continued availability of financing on acceptable terms in amounts sufficient to support the Group's future business;
- (c)Competition that the Group will face from existing and potential future industry participants;
- (d)Potential difficulties and demands on management's time resulting from the need to integrate the Group's businesses and operations following the joint-stock transfer;
- (e)Uncertainties relating to the Group's ability to achieve expected cost-savings or operational or financial synergies as a result of the joint-stock transfer;
- (f)The extent to which Group members undertake acquisitions or enter into strategic joint ventures or partnerships, and the terms thereof;
- (g)Uncertainties relating to the Group's expansion of its business activities internationally, including in the Peoples Republic of China;
- (h)Uncertainties relating to the Group's expansion of its network of retail stores;
- (i)Fluctuations in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates;
- (j)The availability, or increases in the cost, of products to be included in the Group's inventory;
- (k)Changes in consumer tastes or spending patterns and their impact on demand for the Group's products and services;
- (l)The loss of major customers or suppliers;
- (m)Changes in applicable laws or regulation; and

U.S. Securities Law Matters

The proposed joint stock-transfer involves the issuance of the securities of a Japanese company in exchange for securities of Japanese companies. The transaction is subject to the disclosure requirements of Japanese law, which are different from those of the United States. Financial information included herein or in any disclosure document relating to the transaction is based on financial statements prepared in accordance with Japanese accounting standards, which may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for U.S. investors to enforce their rights and any claim they may have with respect to the proposed joint stock-transfer that arise under the U.S. federal securities laws, since the issuer is located in a foreign country and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country. U.S. investors may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

1. Outline of Business

(1) Business developments and achievements in FY 2004, and future issues for the Company

(Business developments and achievements)

During the fiscal year under review, the momentum for economic recovery was sustained until the middle of the year as strong exports underpinned a pickup in corporate earnings and an increase in business capital investment. In the second half of the year, however, a downturn in exports to America and Europe and within Asia weakened the ability of external demand to propel growth in the economy, which was further hit by the effects of natural disasters. Business activity shifted from a slowdown to marking time, but still held relatively steady.

Personal consumption trended firmer along with a gradual turnaround in consumer confidence, while consumer prices followed a mild deflationary curve, since corporate efforts to cut labor costs peaked, which stemmed further declines in employment and income conditions.

Business in the restaurant industry seesawed as stronger sales during the record-breaking scorching heat of June and July gave way to slower guest traffic in the months after August in the wake of typhoons, floods and earthquakes hitting the archipelago.

Against this background, the Company stayed true to its primary purpose of developing and serving absolutely delicious fare. Under this attitude, the Company offered health-conscious and safety-conscious menus, hearty service in the spirit of keeping no customers waiting, and a clean dining environment whose ambience fit the purpose of the customer who used Denny's. The Company also designed events to increase the enjoyment of dining at the Denny's restaurant, one such campaign featuring a "Game of Rock, Paper, Scissors" played between child guests and staff members.

In the area of menu development, the Company introduced in its summer menu a hamburger & Korean bibimbap combination dish, "Maze-Maze (Mix-Mix) Bibimbap & Rice." This proved hugely popular and even topped a ranking survey of "Summer Menus You Want to Eat Most at Family Restaurants" in an economic newspaper, and has continued to be a favorite across a wide spectrum of age groups.

The earlier-marketed, value-for-money "Night Denny Set" and "Day Denny Set," each allowing the customer a choice of dishes, were kept from losing their novelty by varying the menu, and providing a new combination of options, on a monthly basis. These selections, too, have continued to be popular.

The Company introduced new menu items mindful of the changing seasons and of the best ingredients of the season. One example was the inclusion in its autumn menu of a still generally lesser-known "Yuki-Rei-Take" mushroom native to the Uighur region of China, served in an entrée named "Yuki-Rei-Take Sautéed Whole in Garlic and Bread Crumbs." Another introduction was "Farm Salad of Baked Vegetables," 14 kinds of vegetables, including burdock, lotus root, sweet potato, and mini tomato, baked and served as an assorted platter of flavors.

As evidence of its enthusiasm for quality, the Company launched "Uva," the most famous Ceylon tea, and the "Keemun" Chinese tea, each brewed using premier leaves in its own category. These were marketed, together with its earlier-introduced "Darjeeling Second Flush" tea, as "World's Three Greatest Black Teas."

In sales promotion efforts, the Company in October designed a menu & event combination to increase the enjoyment of dining. The seven-item "Halloween Menu" covered everything from steak, soup and salad to dessert in the theme of pumpkin, the vegetable of the season, and Halloween. This was advertised using a specially designed menu leaflet for insertion in the regular menu booklet. In tandem with this, the Company conducted a "Point Rally" campaign in which customers collected seals obtained by ordering from the Menu.

This "Point Rally" campaign was extended to apply also to a series of campaigns leading up to a "Happy Christmas" event in late December, in order to attract repeat patronage. The series included a "Cheers with Wine Fair," the Company's first-ever offering of Nouveau Beaujolais, and a "Happy Christmas" event, in which a special menu for Christmas was offered including "Beef Fillet Steak under the Recipe of Rossini the Gourmet" accompanied by the "World's Three Great Delicacies," or foie gras, truffle, and caviar.

In accordance with its longstanding profitability-oriented criteria for opening new restaurants, the Company opened 18 company-owned and operated restaurants mainly in the Tokyo metropolitan area, and closed 14 restaurants (including three franchised restaurants) for reasons mostly of lease expiry or rebuilding. This brought the total number of Denny's restaurants to 582 (including three franchises) at the end of FY 2004.

Reflecting all the above, the Company posted year-to-year increases in sales and earnings in FY 2004, with revenues from operations increasing 0.9% to 96,523 million yen, recurring income increasing 3.1% to 3,317 million yen, and net income increasing 11.4% to 1,284 million yen.

The Company opted for the early adoption of "Standards for Accounting for Impairment of Fixed Assets" in order to reinforce and to ensure the transparency and soundness of its finances. This application resulted in an impairment loss of 228 million yen being recognized and included in extraordinary losses.

(Capital expenditure and funds procurement)

In FY 2004, the Company invested a total of 2,644 million yen in facilities and equipment. The investment included 1,439 million yen for the construction of new restaurants (18 outlets), and 55 million yen for the renovation and remodeling of existing restaurants (24 outlets) to improve their aesthetics and seating capacity/layout environment. The remaining 1,150 million yen was also invested in existing restaurants for other purposes.

These funding requirements were appropriated entirely from internally generated funds.

(Future issues for the Company)

During the next fiscal year, exports to America and Europe and within Asia are likely to remain sluggish until the middle of the year. Business in general might suffer an additional dent as a consequence of the yen's further appreciation triggered by America's growing current-account deficit, etc. Other factors to be monitored include movements of crude-oil prices and the IT-related sector's adjustment of inventory.

Personal consumption is not likely to show a marked recovery, since household income may not increase, while the corporate sector keeps a lid on labor costs.

Business in the restaurant industry may remain difficult; a reduction in fixed-rate tax deductions and/or an increase in pension insurance premiums may place an additional burden on household budgets and cause consumer confidence to fall. Furthermore, a continued shrinkage in the dining-out market should only intensify competition in the industry.

The Company believes it is of paramount importance to make its existing restaurants more competitive in this difficult operating environment. A complete mastery of the fundamentals of "preparation, service, and cleanliness" and operation of restaurants under the stance of placing importance on learning from the customer must be emphasized more strongly than ever before. The Company will differentiate itself from other restaurants by improving speed and competitiveness.

In the area of product development, the Company will constantly review its array of staple dishes offered on an everyday basis. Greater emphasis will also be put on seasonal menus, menus that allow a choice of various dietary styles, and high-quality menus whose attentiveness to each and every ingredient used should be reassuring for safety-conscious customers.

The Company will attain a standard of service that allows no customers to be kept waiting. To this end, the Company will implement improvements to eliminate wastes or overloads that could be found at the outlet level in order to marshal and orchestrate staff more efficiently and accurately. At the same time, on-the-job education and training will be stepped up consistently from the entry level upwards.

In procuring and purchasing ingredients, the Company will take aggressive advantage of the IY (Ito Yokado) Group's collective merchandising power. The Company will challenge itself to reduce overheads by drastically overhauling its cost structure rather than by simply repeating the same measures that have been tested before. Sales promotion events will be individualized on a region-by-region and restaurant-by-restaurant basis.

In FY 2005, the Company plans to open 30 restaurants over the year, chiefly in the Tokyo metropolitan area, and it plans to close around 10 restaurants that need rebuilding or whose profitability is low or whose lease expires shortly.

In FY 2005, the Company is also scheduled to renovate or remodel 86 existing restaurants.

The Company always stands resolved to spare nothing in its enthusiastic pursuit of ever-stronger results, and, along the way, humbly asks for the continued support of its shareholders.

- (Notes)
1. Revenue from operations includes operating income accrued from franchisees.
 2. For the 29th and preceding years, net income per share is calculated based on the average total number of shares in issue during the year, and net assets per share is calculated based on the number of shares issued at year-end.
In such calculation for the 29th year, however, the average number of shares of treasury stock held during the year is deducted from the average total number of shares in issue during the year, and the number of shares of treasury stock at year-end is deducted from the number of shares issued at year-end.
 3. From the 30th year, net income per share and net assets per share are calculated in accordance with Corporate Accounting Standard No. 2 "Accounting Standards for Net Income per Share" (issued by the Corporate Accounting Standards Executive Committee on September 25, 2002) and with Application Guidelines for Corporate Accounting No. 4 "Application Guidelines for Accounting Standards regarding Net Income per Share" (issued by the Corporate Accounting Standards Executive Committee on September 25, 2002).

2. Outline of the Company (as of February 28, 2005)

(1) Major business

The Company has a chain of 582 mostly 24-hour food service outlets designed upon its own idea of a coffee shop-restaurant hybrid.

The Company seeks to meet the changing needs of its customers, to provide a menu that varies as the seasons turn, and to enhance the quality of food and service it offers. As a casual and handy "curbside restaurant," the Company aims to pursue good food, and to grow and prosper together with the community it serves.

(Notes)

1. Significant accounting policies
 - (1) Valuation method for securities

Available-for-sale securities are classified into two categories:

Fair value is available

Securities, whose fair value is available, are valued at the quoted market price prevailing at the end of the fiscal year. Net unrealized gains or losses on these securities are reported as a separate component of shareholders' equity at a net-of-tax amount. Cost of sales is determined by the moving-average method.

Fair value is not available

Securities, whose fair value is not available, are valued at cost, determined by the moving-average method.
 - (2) Valuation method for inventories

Merchandise inventories, raw materials and supplier inventories are valued at cost, determined by the last purchase price method.
 - (3) Depreciation and amortization
 - (a) Property and equipment

Depreciation expenses are computed using the declining-balance method.
 - (b) Intangible assets

Amortization expenses for intangible assets are computed using the straight-line method. Software for internal use is amortized by the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 5 years.
 - (4) Allowances
 - (a) Allowance for bonuses to employees

An allowance for bonuses to employees is provided for bonuses payable to employees at the amount expected to be paid in respect of the calculation period ended on the balance sheet date.
 - (b) Allowance for accrued pension and severance costs

An allowance for accrued pension and severance costs is provided at the amount incurred during the fiscal year, which is based on the estimated present value of the projected benefit obligation less the estimated fair value of the plan assets at the end of the fiscal year. Prior service costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over certain years within an average remaining service period (10 years). Unrecognized actuarial differences are amortized on a straight-line basis over certain years within an average remaining service period (10 years) from the next year in which they arise.
 - (c) Allowance for retirement benefits to directors and corporate auditors

An allowance for retirement benefits to directors and corporate auditors is provided in accordance with policy of Denny's Japan Co., Ltd. (the "Company") policy.
 - (5) Leases

All finance lease contracts other than those by which the ownership of the leased assets is to be transferred to lessees are accounted for as operating leases.
 - (6) Consumption taxes

Consumption taxes are separately accounted for, and are excluded from the amounts of the underlying income and expense transactions.
2. Changes in Accounting Policy
 - (1) Accounting Standard for Impairment of Fixed Assets

On August 9, 2002, the Business Accounting Council issued a new accounting standard, "Accounting Standard for Impairment of Fixed Assets", and on October 31, 2003, the Accounting Standard Board of Japan issued Financial Accounting Standards

Guidance No. 6, "Implementation Guidance for Accounting Standards for Impairment of Fixed Assets". These new pronouncements are effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2005 with early adoption permitted for fiscal years ending on or after March 31, 2004. The Company early adopted the new accounting standard for impairment of fixed assets for the fiscal year beginning on March 1, 2004. As a result of adopting the new accounting standard for impairment of fixed assets, income before income taxes for the year ended February 28, 2005, decreased by ¥228,133 thousand. Accumulated impairment losses are deducted directly from related fixed assets.

3. Notes

(Notes to balance sheet)

- (1) Short-term receivable from principal shareholder: ¥196,795 thousand
- (2) Accumulated depreciation of property and equipment: ¥26,725,825 thousand
- (3) In addition to the fixed assets recorded in the balance sheet, information-related equipment and cuisine equipment are being used under lease agreements.
- (4) Long-term receivable from principal shareholder: ¥174,656 thousand
- (5) Guarantees: ¥672 thousand
- (6) Incremental net assets resulted from revaluating assets at fair market value as stipulated in Article 124, paragraph 3 of the Commercial Code Enforcement Regulation of Japan:
¥126,710 thousand
- (7) Treasury stock:
Number of outstanding shares at the end of year (shares) 32,356,610
Number of treasury stock (shares) 179,521

(Notes to profit and loss statement)

- (1) Operating expenses to the principal shareholders: ¥151,770 thousand
- (2) Net income per share: ¥39.08

Note: Any fractional amounts less than one thousand yen have been disregarded.

Independent Auditors' Report

April 13, 2005

To President and Representative Director of Denny's Japan Co., Ltd.
Mr. Kenichi Asama

ChuoAoyama PricewaterhouseCoopers

Koji Kobayashi, CPA
Representative and Engagement Partner
Yohei Kishi, CPA
Representative and Engagement Partner
Hiroko Sakamoto, CPA
Representative and Engagement Partner

We have audited, pursuant to Article 2, paragraph 1 of the "Special Law of the Commercial Code Concerning the Audit, etc. of Stock Corporations (Kabusiki-Kaisya)" of Japan, the financial statements, which consist of the balance sheet, profit and loss statement, business report (limited to the accounting figures included therein) and proposal for appropriation of retained earnings and supplementary schedules (limited to the accounting figures included therein) of Denny's Japan Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") for the 32nd fiscal year from March 1, 2004 to February 28, 2005. The portion of the business report and supplementary schedules subject to our audit are those derived from the accounting books and records of the Company. These financial statements and supplementary schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and supplementary schedules based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and supplementary schedules are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and supplementary schedules. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As a result of our audit, it is our opinion that:

- (1) The balance sheet and profit and loss statement present fairly the financial position and results of operation of the Company in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Articles of Incorporation.
- (2) As discussed in Changes in Accounting Policy in the notes to the financial statements, the Company has adopted the new accounting standard, "Accounting Standard for Impairment of Fixed Assets", for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2005. This accounting change is in accordance with the provision of the standard for early adoption for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2005.
- (3) The business report of the Company (limited to the accounting figures included therein) presents fairly the Company's affairs in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Articles of Incorporation.
- (4) The proposal for appropriation of retained earnings is presented in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Articles of Incorporation.

- (5) There is nothing in respect of the supplementary schedules (limited to the accounting figures included therein) that is required to be mentioned by the provisions of the Commercial Code of Japan.

We have no interest in or relationship with the Company which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the Certified Public Accountant Law of Japan.

Corporate Auditors' Report

We, the Board of Corporate Auditors of Denny's Japan Co., Ltd. (hereinafter the "Company"), following a review and discussion of the individual reports made by each Corporate Auditor concerning the method and the results of his/her audit of the execution by Directors of their duties in the 32nd fiscal year, from March 1, 2004 through February 28, 2005, prepared this Corporate Auditors' Report and hereby submit our report as follows:

1. Summary of Corporate Auditors' Auditing Methods

In accordance with the auditing standard determined by the Board of Corporate Auditors, the auditing policies and the auditing plan for the year, each Corporate Auditor, in addition to attending meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings, has listened to the reports on business from the Directors and the like, has examined documents and so on containing important decisions, has investigated the conditions of business and assets (including organization framework for compliance and risk management, hereinafter the "Internal control system") at the head office and other important places of business. In addition, the Corporate Auditors have monitored the independence of independent auditors, received reports and explanations from the independent auditors on a timely basis and have examined the financial statements and the supplementary schedules.

In addition to the above auditing methods, each Corporate Auditor, to the extent necessary, requested reports from Directors and others, to review the status of the following kinds of transactions: Director's transactions in competition with the Company; any transactions involving conflict of interests between Directors and the Company; any dealings in which the Company provided benefits without compensation; unusual transactions between the Company and shareholders; and repurchase or disposal of the Company's own shares.

2. Result of the Audit

- (1) The auditing methods and results of the independent auditors, ChuoAoyama PricewaterhouseCoopers, are appropriate.
- (2) The business report of the Company presents fairly the Company's affairs in conformity with the applicable laws and regulations of Japan and the Articles of Incorporation.
- (3) There is nothing that is required to be mentioned, in light of the Company's financial condition and other circumstances, regarding proposal for appropriation.
- (4) The supplementary schedules present fairly matters which should be stated therein and there is nothing that is required to be mentioned.
- (5) Regarding the execution of their duties by Directors, there were no fraudulent acts or material matters in violation of the applicable laws and regulations of Japan or the Articles of Incorporation.
We did not find any violations of the duties of Directors regarding transactions in competition with the Company, transactions involving conflict of interests between Directors and the Company, dealings in which the Company provided benefits without compensation, unusual transactions between the Company and shareholders and repurchase or disposal of the Company's own shares.
- (6) There is nothing that is required to be mentioned regarding the execution of their duties by Directors for the Internal control system.

REFERENCE MATTERS RELATING TO THE EXERCISE OF SHAREHOLDERS' VOTING RIGHTS

1. Number of Voting Rights of the Shareholders: 320,872
2. Proposals and Reference Matters

Proposal 1: Approval of Proposed Appropriation of Retained Earnings for the 32nd Accounting Period

It is proposed that the retained earnings for the accounting period will be appropriated as described in the Appendix (p. 15 in the original Japanese text).

It is proposed that the profit dividend for the accounting period will be 15.50 Yen per share, in spite of the harsh management environment, to respond to shareholders' support. Including the interim dividend, the total dividend amount for the period will be 31 Yen per share, which is the same amount as for the previous accounting period.

Proposal 2: Incorporation of Absolute Parent Company by means of Stock-Transfer

1. Reason for the Necessity of the Stock-Transfer

The Ito Yokado Group has been favorably expanding its business on the bases of its superstore operation, convenience store operation, and restaurant operation for years under the slogan "response to changes and adherence to the basics." In recent years, the group has launched finance-related and IT-related operations. The group has thus been maintaining its customer-centered attitude and meeting customer needs have always been a top priority.

On the other hand, facing harsh consumer market environments affected by the rapid decline of the birthrate, aging of society and maturing of the economy, we are fully aware of our urgent challenges. Our operational mobility must be improved in order to respond to changes, and the group's management resources must be effectively utilized in order to pursue the group's growth strategies, which will pave the way for the next generation.

The purpose of the Company, Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd., and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. (collectively, the "Three Companies") in jointly incorporating an absolute parent company, "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd.", is to reinforce their corporate governance and maximize the corporate value of the entire group. It is the Company's management decision that the incorporation of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." will be in the best interests of the stakeholders of the Ito Yokado Group.

For the above-mentioned purpose, we propose that the Company, Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd., and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. jointly incorporate "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." by means of stock-transfer as provided in Article 364 of the Japanese Commercial Code and become wholly-owned subsidiaries of that company. Shareholders' approval is requested for this proposal.

2. Substance of the Stock-Transfer

- (1) Articles of Incorporation of Absolute Parent Company to be Incorporated

The articles of incorporation of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." are as shown in the "Articles of Incorporation of Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." section below (pp. 18 - 48 in the original Japanese text).

- (2) Class and Number of Shares to be Issued by Absolute Parent Company to be Incorporated upon the Stock-Transfer; Allotment of Shares to Shareholders

Upon the stock-transfer, "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." will issue 1,346,383,002 shares of common stock and allot and deliver such shares to the Three Companies' respective shareholders (the term "shareholders" being hereinafter defined as including beneficial shareholders) as entered in the Three Companies' respective latest shareholder registers as of the day immediately preceding the scheduled stock-transfer date (the term "shareholder register" being hereinafter defined as including beneficial shareholder registers) at the rate of: (a) one share of common stock of the Company to 0.65 shares of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd.", (b) one share of common stock of Ito Yokado Co., Ltd. to 1.20 shares of common stock of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd."; and (c) one share of common stock of Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. to 1.00 shares of common stock of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd."

- (3) Stated Capital and Capital Reserve of Absolute Parent Company
- (i) Amount of Stated Capital: 50,000,000,000 Yen.
 - (ii) Capital Reserve: the balance of the total amount of the net assets of the Three Companies as of the effective date of the stock-transfer after deducting the amount of the stated capital and the aggregate amount of cash payments upon the stock-transfer mentioned below.
- (4) Cash payment upon the Stock-Transfer (the Amounts to be paid to Shareholders)
- In lieu of the Three Companies' respective interim dividends, "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." shall pay to each shareholder or registered pledgee entered in the Three Companies' respective latest shareholder registers as of the day immediately preceding the scheduled stock-transfer date a cash payment upon stock-transfer at the following rate for each share of the Three Companies within three (3) months from the incorporation of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd."; provided that, the amount of such cash payment may be changed or not paid through mutual consultation among the Three Companies and "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." in light of the conditions of their respective assets and liabilities, changes in the economic environments, and other circumstances.
- (i) Common Stock of the Company: 15.50 Yen per share.
 - (ii) Common Stock of Ito Yokado Co., Ltd. : 16 Yen per share.
 - (iii) Common Stock of Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd.: 21.50 Yen per share.
- (5) Scheduled Stock-Transfer Date
- September 1, 2005
- Also, an application for registration of incorporation of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." is scheduled to be filed on September 1, 2005; provided that, if necessary for the procedure for the stock-transfer, such date may be changed through mutual consultation among the Three Companies.
- (6) Maximum Amount of Profit Dividends
- (i) The Company may distribute profit dividends to the shareholders or registered pledgees entered in the company's latest shareholder register as of February 28, 2005 to the extent of 498,744,880 Yen in total (15.50 Yen per share).
 - (ii) Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd. may distribute profit dividends to the shareholders or registered pledgees entered in the Company's latest shareholder register as of February 28, 2005 to the extent of 7,513,982,910 Yen in total (18 Yen per share).
 - (iii) Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. may distribute profit dividends to the shareholders or registered pledgees entered in the company's latest shareholder register as of February 28, 2005 to the extent of 17,234,146,236 Yen in total (21.50 Yen per share).

- (7) Directors of the Absolute Parent Company to be Incorporated
 "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." will have the following eleven directors:

3. Explanation of Share Allotment under Article 366, Paragraph 1, Item 2 of the Japanese Commercial Code

The Company has determined the following rates of allotment of shares of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." (the "Stock-Transfer Ratio") to be issued to the shareholders of each of its wholly-owned subsidiaries upon the incorporation of "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd.", the absolute parent company, by means of stock-transfer jointly effected by the Company, Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd., and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. "Seven & I Holdings Co., Ltd." will adopt a voting unit share system, and the number of shares constituting one unit will be 100 shares.

Company Name	The Company	Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd.	Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd.
Stock-Transfer Ratio	0.65	1.20	1.00

The Three Companies have conducted due diligence investigations with the assistance of professionals in the fields of law, financial accounting, and business, and have confirmed that there exists no undisclosed information that might materially affect the Stock-Transfer Ratio. In determining the Stock-Transfer Ratio, the Three Companies have respectively appointed third-party financial advisors from the viewpoint of ensuring the fairness and appropriateness of such determination. Thus, the Company has appointed Deloitte Touch Tohmatsu, Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd. has appointed Nomura Securities Co., Ltd., and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. has appointed GMD Corporate Finance Limited. The Company requested Deloitte Touch Tohmatsu to analyze such Stock-Transfer Ratio with respect to the common stock of each of the Three Companies as may be referred to in the negotiation and consultation with Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd. and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd.

Deloitte Touch Tohmatsu conducted the requested analysis by applying the market share price averaging method (shijo kabuka heikin-ho) and the DCF method (discount cash flow method) to each of the Three Companies, and presented proposed stock-transfer ratio to the Company on the basis of overall consideration of the results of such analysis.

Based on the results of Nomura's analysis, the Company considered the matter from various perspectives, conducted negotiation and consultation with Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd. and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd., sought the advice of Deloitte Touch Tohmatsu, and eventually determined the above Stock-Transfer Ratio. As a result, the Three Companies approved a proposed stock-transfer agreement setting forth the Stock-Transfer Ratio at their respective board meetings held on April 20, 2005, and entered into said agreement as of the same date. The Stock-Transfer Ratio is within the range presented by Deloitte Touch Tohmatsu. In the stock-transfer agreement, however, it is agreed that the Stock-Transfer Ratio may be modified through the Three Companies' mutual consultation if, before the scheduled stock-transfer date, a material change occurs to the conditions assumed for the determination of the Stock-Transfer Ratio.

(Notes)

1. Significant accounting policies

(1) Valuation method for securities

(a) Investment in subsidiaries and affiliates are valued at cost, determined using the moving-average method.

(b) Available-for-sale securities are classified into two categories:

Fair value is available

Securities, whose fair value is available, are valued at the quoted market price prevailing at the end of the fiscal year. Net unrealized gains or losses on these securities are reported as a separate component of shareholders' equity at a net-of-tax amount. Cost of sales is determined by the moving-average method.

Fair value is not available

Securities, whose fair value is not available, are principally valued at cost, determined by the moving-average method.

(2) Valuation method for derivatives

Derivative financial instruments are valued at fair value.

(3) Valuation method for Inventories

(a) Fresh foods are valued at cost, determined by the last purchase price method.

(b) Merchandises at stores (except fresh foods) are valued at the lower of cost or market, determined by the retail method.

(c) Merchandises at distribution centers (except fresh foods) are valued at cost, determined by the moving-average method.

(d) Supplies are valued at cost, determined by the last purchase price method.

(4) Depreciation and amortization

(a) Property and equipment

Depreciation expenses are computed using the declining-balance method.

(b) Intangible assets

Amortization expenses for intangible assets are computed using the straight-line method. Software for internal use is amortized using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 5 years.

(5) Allowances

(a) Allowance for doubtful accounts

An allowance for doubtful accounts is provided against potential losses on collection at an amount measured using a historical bad debt ratio for normal receivables, plus an amount individually measured on collectibility of receivables that are expected to be uncollectible due to bad financial condition or insolvency.

(b) Allowance for bonuses to employees

An allowance for bonuses to employees is provided for bonuses payable to employees at the amount expected to be paid in respect of the calculation period ended on the balance sheet date.

(c) Allowance for accrued pension and severance costs (Prepaid pension cost)

An allowance for accrued pension and severance costs is provided at the amount incurred during the fiscal year, which is based on the estimated present value of the projected benefit obligation less the estimated fair value of the plan assets at the end of the fiscal year. The excess of the estimated fair value of the plan assets over the estimated present value of projected benefit obligation adjusted by unrecognized actuarial differences is recognized as prepaid pension cost for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2005. Unrecognized actuarial differences are amortized on a straight-line basis over certain years within an average remaining service period (10 years) from the next year in which they arise. Prior service costs are not amortized because the unrecognized assets have existed.

(Additional Information)

Following approval from Japanese Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare on September 1, 2004, the "Ito-Yokado Group Employee Pension Fund", which the Company participates in, was transferred to the "IY Group Employees' Pension Fund" based on the "Defined Benefit Corporate Pension Plan Act". Following the transition, the retirement benefits plan was revised. As a result, prior service costs of ¥4,045 million (decrease of liability) were recognized.

- (d) Allowance for retirement benefits to directors and corporate auditors
An allowance for retirement benefits to directors and corporate auditors is provided in accordance with the policy of Ito-Yokado Co., Ltd. (the "Company").
- (e) Allowance for sales promotion
An allowance for sales promotion is provided for the use of points given to customers at the amount expected to be used on the balance sheet date in accordance with the sales promotion point card program.
- (6) Hedge accounting
The interest rate swaps which qualify for special hedge accounting treatment are accounted for by the special hedge accounting treatment.
- (7) Leases
All finance lease contracts other than those by which the ownership of the leased assets is to be transferred to lessees are accounted for as operating leases.
- (8) Consumption taxes
Consumption taxes are separately accounted for, and are excluded from the amounts of the underlying income and expense transactions.

(Changes in Accounting Policy)

Accounting Standard for Impairment of Fixed Assets

On August 9, 2002, the Business Accounting Council issued a new accounting standard, "Accounting Standard for Impairment of Fixed Assets", and on October 31, 2003, the Accounting Standard Board of Japan issued Financial Accounting Standards Guidance No. 6, "Implementation Guidance for Accounting Standards for Impairment of Fixed Assets". These new pronouncements are effective for fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2005 with early adoption permitted for fiscal years ending on or after March 31, 2004. The Company early adopted the new accounting standard for impairment of fixed assets for the fiscal year beginning on March 1, 2004. As a result of adopting the new accounting standard for impairment of fixed assets, income before income taxes for the year ended February 28, 2005, decreased by ¥17,819 million.

Accumulated impairment losses are deducted directly from related fixed assets.
